1.4. The Organizer’s intention and purpose of the Promotion is not to restrict access to the market for other entities offering products similar in nature to those of the Organizer (hereinafter referred to as “Other Entities”).

In particular, the conditions for participation in the Promotion and the terms for receiving prizes are in no way dependent on the number of products ordered from Other Entities or on any actions performed for Other Entities, either during or after the Promotion.

1.5. The Organizer reserves the right to make changes to these Regulations. Any amendments will be announced 14 days in advance on the Promotion’s Website and at the Organizer’s registered office. The Participant shall not raise any objections or claims in connection with any potential modification of these Regulations.
